THE BANE OF NEVADA.

The Winnemucca Silver State comments upon the bill introduced to prevent railroad discrimination, and its remarks are to the point. It says: Railroad discrimination is the bane of Nevada. It is almost fatal to every industry in the interior of the State. By a system of "special rates" accorded to favorites, grain from California is shipped to Eureka, over the Central Pacific to Palisade thence on the narrow gauge, cheaper than from Winnemucca, while merchandise from the East charged higher rates to Winnemucca or any of the interior towns of the State than if taken through to tide water. Special rates from California may be obtained for articles which come in competition with the products of the State, such as salt flour and grain; but full rates are charged on all other classes of freight, as if the policy of the railroad managers was to suppress all the industries of Nevada, except mining, for the benefit of California. A majority of the members of the present Legislature know that such is the fact, yet nobody suspects for a moment that they will pass a bill of this character. An influence more potent than the interests of their constituents has always controlled a majority of Nevada legislators on railroad questions, and it is not likely that the present will prove an exception to the past. Lobbyists furnish the average legislator with a pretext and a price for opposing hostile legislation—the former is the unconstitutionality of such bills, and the latter a free pass and perhaps a twenty-dollar piece.

Statistics of the Carson Mint.

Owing to a defect in mechanism, the new double-eagle die was found to work very imperfectly, and consequently there was no coinage of that denomination at the Carson Mint during last month. The supply of eagles and half-eagles being in excess of the demand, there was no gold coinage at this institution during the month of January. The silver coinage during the period was as follows: Half dollars, 20,000; quarters, 138,000; dimes, 98,000. The following shipments of subsidiary coin have been made during the month: To Philadelphia—dimes, 20,000; To Chicago—dimes, 5,000; quarters, 25,000; To New York—quarters, 25,000; dimes, 20,000. To Cincinnati—quarters, 20,000. To St. Louis—quarters, 10,000.

Public Debt Statement.

The public debt statement shows: Total coin bonds, $1,091,797,500. Lawful-money debt, $14,000,000. Legal tenders, $365,050,234. Total debt, $2,450,847,734. Total interest, $20,327,007. Coin in Treasury, $88,477,949; currency in Treasury, $9,460,300. Total in Treasury, $129,719,947. Decrease of debt during January, $3,069,669. Since June, 1876, the decrease is $9,587,772. The First Ocean Steamship

Harper's Magazine for February contains an illustrated article descriptive of the voyage of the Savannah, the first steamship that crossed the Atlantic in the year 1819. This pioneer steamer was so constructed that in case of boisterous weather, her paddle-wheels could be brought on deck. This transfer was made during the voyage. Capt. Rogers, of the Savannah, gives the following amusing account of her reception on the coast of Ireland: "She (the steamer) was seen from the telegraph station at Cape Clear, on the southern coast of Ireland, and reported as a ship on fire. The admiral, who lay in the Cove of Cork, dispatched one of the king's cutters to her relief. But great was their wonder at their inability, with all sail in a fast vessel, to come up with a ship under bare poles. After several shots were fired from the cutter, the engine was stopped, and the surprise of her crew at the mistake they had made, as well as their curiosity to see the singular Yankee craft, can be easily imagined. They asked permission to go on board, and were much gratified by the inspection of this naval novelty."

Inauguration Day.

Inauguration Day falls on Sunday, March 11th, and many are commenting on the propriety of the ceremonies on that day, or the postponement of them until the following Monday. In 1821, the 4th of March was Sunday, and President-elect Monroe, not knowing what was the proper course to pursue, submitted the question to the Supreme Court, which, through Chief Justice Marshall, expressed itself as follows:

The pageantry of a Presidential inauguration upon the Christian Sabbath would be against the spirit and genius of our American institutions, customs, and laws; therefore, its pomp and circumstance must be deferred until a secular day. Meanwhile, the President will retain his office—till his successor shall have been inaugurated, at twelve of the clock on Monday, the 5th of March.

Eureka Mining Suit.

The injunction suit in the case of the Eureka Consolidated vs. Richmond Company commenced at Eureka on Thursday. The plaintiff's attorneys are A. J. Thornton, S. Heydenfeldt, J. Garber and H. K. Mitchell. Messrs. Wren, Crit, Thornton, Hillhouse, Davenport and C. J. Lansing appear for the Richmond. A number of surveyors and mining experts are here as witnesses. The present proceedings are to have the defendant enjoined from removing any ore from the ground in dispute. A dispatch says it will take several days to take the testimony of the witnesses. Great interest is manifested by every one in the progress of the trial.

PAYORS RESUMPTION.

A dispatch from Albany says the New York Senate has passed unanimously a resolution favoring the speedy resumption of specie payment. We are gratified that the leading States recognize that a speedy return to specie payments is the only safe course to pursue. New York, by an act of her last Legislature, fixed on the 1st of January, 1879, for resumption, by providing that on and after that date, all taxes and debts for the liquidation of which no currency has been stipulated, shall be paid in gold. Massachusetts has on her statute book a similar enactment. Now we see that New York is anxious to forestall that date, and that resumption is favored in the most important part of the Union. We believe, like Greeley, that the best way to resume is, and the country heartily seconded President Grant's motion to do it at once.

AN ARCTIC COLONY.—A bill is now pending in Congress asking the Government to organize and send out one or more expeditions toward the North Pole, and to establish a temporary colony, for the purpose of exploration; at some point north of the eighty-first degree of north latitude, on or near the shore of Lady Franklin Bay; to detail such officers and persons in the public service as may be necessary, and to use any public vessel suitable for the purpose. That this proposed Arctic colony would be any more successful than other expeditions sent to search for the North Pole, cannot be believed. Repeated failures in that direction only confirm scientific minds of the utter folly of all such expeditions. Great Britain, after more than a century's trials to reach the North Pole, is now seemingly willing to abandon all further efforts in this hazardous business.

RAILROAD BIDDEN.

The Carson legislative correspondent of the San Francisco Chronicle writes that paper of the manner in which the monopolies control legislation. Disclaiming any desire to misrepresent the Legislature, he says:

A correspondent giving facts as they exist would naturally inquire why it is that the huge railroad monopolies and gigantic mining corporations of this coast can so easily and effectually control legislation in this sovereign State; would inquire into the method by which every bill introduced in the interest of the laboring masses, and only asking that the Central Pacific and Virginia and Truckee Railroad Companies be prohibited from unjustly discriminating in freight rates to sister monopolies and the common people, is assassinated in its very conception, or dies in the hands of the Committee to which it may be referred. Such has been the fate of every bill thus far introduced, in any manner interfering with the now-legalized thefts of these two corporations. Under the present law either of the corporations referred to may (and each of them does) charge "John Jones" 8 cents per pound for freight, and John Smith for the same freight transported the same distance, 18 cents. "John Jones" may possibly be a Virginia City lumber dealer, or the manager of a minor mill, and "John Smith" may be engaged in a precisely similar business, yet somehow the Jones firm are, by reason of lower freight rates, enabled to prosper, while the ubiquitous Smith can't make a red cent.

OUR INSANE.—The Lyon County Times says:

The number of insane persons now supported at the Woodbridge asylum by the State of Nevada, is about 80, and the cost amounts to some $50,000 we believe. A committee of the Legislature have visited the institution, but we have not yet seen the report. For the sum mentioned our insane should receive first-class care and treatment, and the question arises as to whether it would not be best for the State to provide an asylum where the unfortunates could be kept equally well, and perhaps at less aggregate cost. However, it is likely too late now to perfect any plan at this session.

A movement is said to have been set on foot in New York to organize a company for the encouragement of trade between that city and Brazil. It is intended to establish a direct line of steamers to that country, and the company is to be known as The Amazon Trading Company.

Miss May does not mind the loss of Bennett so much, but she did want to show off that $20,000 trousseau.

white man to labor in the cotton and cane fields of the South, little or no effort was made to encourage the immigration of small farmers. The business of raising cotton, rice, sugar and cereals was almost a monopoly; immense tracts of land were in possession of solitary planters, who carried on their vast estates by slaves. "The chivalry" did not want free white laborers in their neighborhood; and hence the Irish and German emigrants, and also northern farmers, did not seek homes south of Mason's and Dixon's line.

Since the close of the rebellion—which knocked many foolish ideas from Southern brains—this land monopoly has decreased, and the people in Dixie have sensibly concluded that the best method to enrich their country is to increase the number of white laborers, and productive, tax-paying inhabitants. Within a few years the States of Virginia, North Carolina have organized "Boards of Immigration," which have published interesting geographical and industrial reports of the advantages and resources of said States, and inviting small farmers and mechanics to come and settle on their fertile lands or in their rural villages.

This is a wise decision. Land is relatively cheap in all the Southern States; and a systematic effort to increase immigration would unquestionably meet with success. The climate of the northern tier of these States is more desirable than that of the far West; the soil is naturally fertile and easily cultivated; while the marketable price of farm products range as high as in other agricultural sections. We are fully convinced that for men of limited capital who desire to purchase farm homes, that the South has many advantages over the New England and Western States.

The social condition of the Southern States, we are assured, is much improved since the close of the rebellion. Slavery was a blight and miller, and no one is more thoroughly convinced of that fact than the regenerated Southerner. To-day the ex-slave and the ex-master are on the same political level. Before the law they are also equals. But the black voters were enfranchised before they were prepared for it, before they knew the real value of the ballot. Hence there has been some "unpleasantness" between the two classes whenever important political questions come up for debate or decision. But the immigration of white farmers and mechanics will have a tendency to neutralize the political power of the large negro population of the South, and then will come peace harmony and progress.

THE LEGISLATURE.

What Was Done in Carson Saturday.

Senate.

Blair introduced a bill relating to the fees of county officers.

Boardman introduced a bill to more effectually prevent cruelty to animals.

Creswell introduced a bill authorizing the Supreme Court to issue restraining orders pending the nomination of appeals.

Assembly.

The State Prison Committee reported having found the stock, tools, and materials, at the State Prison tally with the Warden's report.

Motion by Grey that the evidence in the Prison Investigation last session, and by Stewart that the evidence in the subsequent investigation before the Prison Commissioners be delivered to the Assembly were adopted.

Babcock introduced a bill appropriating $12,000 to pay for extraordinary expenses in the prosecution of the billion tax suits.

Botsford introduced a bill to compel the Virginia Gas Company to pay a monthly rental $200 for the use of the streets.

The bill amending the Act to Incorporate Gold Hill, passed.

The Warden bill was taken up at 12. Harris opened the debate on the Warden bill opposing its passage.

Grey replied in an eloquent speech favoring the passage of the bill.

The bill passed by a vote of 26 to 23. Stewart changed from no to aye, and Love gave notice of a reconsideration.

The Times has an editorial arguing that it is impossible to go behind the Presidential returns of a State, as furnished by the President of the Senate.

rd Bill—The Compromise Tribunal—Alabama—Democratic Investigators Still Working—Belnap—Alexis.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 27, 1877. The wave of sensation and excitement made by the late

CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION

And gathering of people at Philadelphia, which passed over this country and found its way with more or less power to all the nations of the world, seems to have entirely subsided. The after influences in the way of suggestions for progress in industries, improvements in machinery, new types of form and color in manufactures and art, a wider and more intimate knowledge of the resources of each section in natural productions, a comparative study of the educational systems, of the efforts made for the security of life and health to the human race, the improvements in ship-building and the systems and methods of warfare, the study of the sciences and in fact an almost endless representation of the achievements of man will have a far more enduring and permanent result. Even with all the incalculable good to be derived from this which men have stored up in their minds and notebooks, we have retained in this country a very considerable portion of the actual materials and articles exhibited at Philadelphia. Perhaps the largest collection secured from foreign countries for permanent exhibition in the United States are those which fall into the

NATIONAL MUSEUM

At Washington. No less than ten thousand boxes and packages, having a weight of five hundred tons and reaching the enormous number of hundreds of thousands of articles, have been presented this museum from the countries of Europe, of Asia, of Africa, of Australia, the Polynesian Islands, Sandwich Islands, Canada, Bermuda and of South America. The appropriations of the Smithsonian Institute, the United States Fish Commission and the Interior Department made to enable the Government Centennial exhibit, have also accumulated a large amount of interesting objects of study. These are now awaiting a special appropriation to defray their transportation to Washington, where they will be carefully stored until an extension of the present buildings of the National Museum shall afford room for their display, when they will be thrown open to the free admission of the general public. It is to be hoped that Congress will take some action in the matter without delay. The

ELECTORAL BILL,

Which passed the Senate Thursday morning after an all night session, continues to be the principal subject of discussion and thought. The opposition to the bill in the Senate was led by Messrs. Morton and Sherman, who undoubtedly made forcible presentations of their side of the case, but they both labored under the disadvantage of having arguments upon record which went directly to the opposite side and of course when Senators Edmunds and Conkling used this terrible advantage by quoting to them their own late opinions they had no answer to make. Before this letter reaches you the bill will undoubtedly have become a law. There is very little known as yet regarding the House membership of the tribunal, but the names most prominently mentioned for the Senate branch are Edmunds, Conkling, Morton, Crispien, Bayard and Thurman. The Senate Committee charged with investigating the late

ALABAMA ELECTION

Will begin their labor to-morrow. Unlike the others, this committee will not go to the contested State, but propose by summoning the witnesses before them to conduct the investigation here. The

DEMOCRATIC INVESTIGATORS

Still continue their nosing into private dispatches. They met Thursday and had before them several telegraph operators from Philadelphia, but failed to elicit anything of interest or that would excite suspicion. The only one thing that they have proven in their investigations is that they are not only willing to go behind the returns of a State, but behind the Constitution as well, if by so doing they can only get into office.

GENERAL BELKNAP,

Who has been in the city since last April awaiting his trial, has this week addressed a letter to the District Attorney demanding an immediate trial. The fact that no steps have been taken towards this trial by the authorities although nearly ten months have elapsed since the indictment, would seem to show that the is on his way up the Potomac to Washington, and the entire city is agog to receive him. Welcome! Royal Rooster to an obsequious republic!

THE COMSTOCK.

The Outlook Cheerful and Bright—Condition and Prospects of the Bonanza—Yellow Jacket, Overman, Bullion and Other Mines.

(Gold Hill News.)

Stocks begin again to show a tolerably healthy and lively feeling. This state of affairs is based, beyond a doubt, upon two propositions. The first of these is the fact that the bonanza mines are daily proving themselves, on the 1650-foot level, all that their most sanguine supporters have ever claimed, and there is now little if any doubt that a year and a half more of their princely dividends are secured to the people of the Comstock. The yield of the Consolidated Virginia and California for the year closing with the 1st of January last was $30,000,000, and the prospect of an equal production for the year to come certainly has no very despondent look.

The other is the prospect of important ore developments in the near future. The Overman 1300 and 1400-foot levels are pretty well drained and the expectations of a development of the fine ore prospects found on the 1200-foot level into a large paying body lower down are apparently very near fruition. This view is strongly sustained by the excellent ore developed in the winze now being sunk north of the shaft in the 1200-foot level.

In the Bullion the flood of water struck on the 1600-foot level night before last is gradually subsiding, and there is but little doubt that the ore vein will be reached in a very few days. The excellent ore prospects already encountered on the 1500-foot level fully warrant the belief that when the vein is reached the past reputation of this famous mine will, to say the least, be fully redeemed.

The ore prospects in the east crosscuts on the 2010-foot level of the Yellow Jacket are growing much brighter.

The Imperial Consolidated, Belcher and Crown Point will soon have new levels ready to open, so that so far as the condition and prospects of the mines are concerned the outlook is certainly bright and cheerful.

SEVERAL journals have special announcements that Judge Kelley of Pennsylvania is hostile to resumption; but that, if resumption is possible at all in the near future, the President's plan is the best—comparing it with the humane man who cut off his dog's tail at once, instead of an inch a day, as others did.

WATER-PROOF and French blacking at Coggeshall & Co's.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—One day last week the McGinley troupe, of this place, while riding along the La Porte road, met with an accident by which all were tipped out and more or less hurt. Mr. McGinley, who was driving, dropped one of the reins and in his attempt to regain possession of it frightened the horses so that they ran away. The wagon was overturned and the troupe, with the stage furniture, etc., were spilled out. All received serious wounds—Miss Alice being particularly unfortunate, as she received an ugly cut on her upper lip, in addition to other bruises. We have not heard where they are at present nor how they are getting along. The troupe as now traveling is composed of Mr. McGinley, Misses May and Alice and Master Bobby.

ROLL OF HONOR.—The following are the names of those pupils in the Grammar School department, that have reached 90 per cent. in scholarship and deportment, for the month ending February 24: Jessie Wintermantel, 96; Dora Cantrell, 91; Rose Wilcox, 97; Flora Northrop, 99; Louisa Hoyle, 91; Julia Wintermantel, 98; Armenia Grippen, 97; May Benham, 97; Alma Smith, 94; Grant Johnson, 90; Gracie Williams, 93; Willie Biggs, 93; George Larcombe, 97; Cora Pendleton, 98; Learline Woodward, 91.

INSTALLATION.—Haswell Lodge No. 18, I. O. G. T., has installed the following officers: W. C. T., T. F. Laycock; W. V. T., Miss Eva Barnes; W. S., James Wylie; W. F. S., G. E. Hall; W. T., Miss Josie M. Barnes; W. M., John McAskell; W. D. M., J. A. Hill; W. I. G., Mrs. Kate Jones; W. O. G., William Rogers; P. W. C. T., John F. Aiken; W. C., George G. Brooks; W. R. H. S., Miss Nellie Miles; W. L. H. S., Miss Mary Upson; W. A. S., Miss Ella Copeland.

FROM THE BLACK HILLS.—Harry Noyes yesterday showed us a letter from Joe Hays, an old chum, now in the Black Hills country, who writes from Deadwood City. He says the Comstock is nothing in comparison to that section, and thinks it is going to be the best place to make money in, since early days in California and Montana.

PERSONAL.—A. C. Pratt, District Attorney of Douglas county, and editor of the Carson Valley News, called in to see us last evening. We rejoice that the world is treating him well.

THE Grangers were here in force yesterday to attend to Lodge business and join in the harvest feast. The occasion was one of much interest to all.

THE District Court has adjourned until the 8th, and Judge Wright has returned to the bosom of his family.

FOR LIFE—KELLY'S SENTENCE.
Yesterday was the time set for passing sentence upon Thos. Kelly, the murderer of Fagan. Promptly at the appointed hour the prisoner was brought into Court, and after the usual preliminaries, Judge Wright proceeded to pass sentence: He said: "The better emotions of the human heart prompt feelings of sympathy and pity towards our fellow creatures when under the cloud of misfortune and adversity. To say that you are unfortunate would be merely a misstatement of the true position which you now occupy. I am not disposed to refer in detail to the various scenes of the cruel tragedy in which you were so prominent an actor, but will content myself with saying, that after hearing the testimony in the case, and after a week's reflection, I am of the deliberate opinion that you are entitled to no further consideration of mercy than was extended to you by the jury in finding you guilty of murder in the second degree; therefore, it becomes my duty, in compliance with the demands of justice, to inflict upon you the highest penalty fixed by law. The judgment of the Court therefore is that you be imprisoned in the Nevada State Prison for the full period of your natural life."

No trace of emotion passed over the prisoner's face at the conclusion of the Judge's remarks. Sheriff Lamb removed him from the Court room, and at 1 p. m. took him on the train to Carson, and delivered him to the Warden of the State Prison.

Religious Services.

DIVINE services will be held in the M. E. Church to-day, at 11 a. m. and at 7 p. m., also Sabbath school at 1 1/2 p. m. Rev. T. S. Uren officiating.

At the Episcopal Church there will be divine service at 11 a. m. and 7 1/2 p. m. to-day Rev. S. P. Kelly officiating. Sunday school immediately after morning service. All are cordially invited to attend.

Divine services to-day at the Congregational Church, both morning and evening, Rev. C. H. Pope officiating. Sunday School as usual.

BAPTIST services will be held at the Baptist Church this Sabbath morning and evening at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., Rev. Mr. Arnold, pastor.

"801" CHARACTER.—The Eureka Sentinel says that Tom Kelly, who has just been sent to the State Prison for life, "left Eureka about a year ago in response to an urgent request from several citizens whose names were not furnished us."

COMMISSIONERS.—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Commissioners will be held to-morrow. Parties interested should bear this in mind.

FLYNN'S death is expected every moment. He cannot possibly live but a few hours longer.

To-morrow is "Steamer" day.

LETTERS, Stelletta and Cori soup paste at Coggeshall & Co's.

THE New York Tribune says: "A surprising amount and variety of American manufactures are beginning to go to Chili and other West Coast regions via Panama. There is a profitable export of cotton, particularly. The Panama Star comments on the growth of American commerce and says, 'Every day it is becoming more and more apparent that no other country can any longer excel the Great Republic.'"

PALACE BARBER SHOP.—Messrs. Morris & Franklinfield desire to announce to their friends and the public in general, that they have opened an elegant Barber Shop, on Virginia street, fronting Budden's photographic gallery. New room, now furniture, and the only latest improved Rochester barber chair to be found in Reno. The most comfortable chair made. Shaving, hair-cutting, shampooing, and dying attended to in a practical and workman-like manner. Everything to insure the comfort and pleasure of customers has been provided. Ladies and children's hair cutting and shampooing a specialty. All kinds of tonics and hair restoratives always on hand, together with the celebrated "dry shampoo," warranted to remove dandruff, and all itching of the head.

MARK H. MORRIS,
H. H. FRANKFIELD.

"ONE GOOD TURN DESERVES ANOTHER."—The above adage is most applicable to Messrs. Gray & Isaacs, dry goods merchants, Virginia street. Seeing since they have come amongst us, ladies have discovered to their joy that the prices in dry goods have fallen to one-half their original price, and still they tumble, as Gray & Isaacs are determined to still continue to lead the dry goods trade of Reno, and with that aim in view they have marked down their entire stock to enable them to clear out all their Winter goods, so now is your opportunity ladies to buy dry goods at your own price, at the same time showing your appreciation for their past acts.
